Discretionary Probate Trust Provisions

Part 1: Definitions

1. Introduction

In these Trust Provisions unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) the singular shall include the plural (and vice versa) and the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter (and vice versa);
- (2) references to statutory provisions shall be taken as references to statutory provisions enacted in the United Kingdom;
- (3) references to “the Declaration of Trust” shall be taken as references to a Declaration of Trust which incorporates the Trusts Powers and Provisions set out in these Trust Provisions so that they form an essential part of the Trust created by that Declaration of Trust.

2. Definitions

“the Initial Trustees” means the Settlor and Additional Trustees

“the Trust Fund” means the Bond(s) referred to in the First Schedule to the Declaration of Trust and the property from time to time representing the same (and also includes any other property which may become Trust Property as a result of any loan to the Trustees or any addition by way of gift or any accumulation of income).

“the Trust Period” means the period starting on the date of the Declaration of Trust and ending on the Vesting Day.

“the Vesting Day” means the 125th anniversary of the date of the Declaration of Trust.

“the Accumulation Period” means the period of 125 years beginning with the date of the Declaration of Trust.

“Trust Property” means any property comprised in the Trust Fund.

“the Settlement” and “this Settlement” mean the Trust created by the Declaration of Trust.

“person” includes a person anywhere in the world and includes a Trustee.

“Civil Partner” has the same meaning as in section 1 of the Civil Partnership Act 2004.

“Spouse” includes a Civil Partner.

“Widow/Widower” of a person includes the individual who was the Civil Partner of that person immediately before that person’s death.

“the Settlor” means the person shown under the heading “The Settlor” at (1).

“the Trust Provisions” means the “Discretionary Probate Trust Provisions” (appended to this Declaration)

“the Insurance Company” means the Insurance Company shown in the First Schedule.

3. The Beneficiaries

“The Beneficiaries” means:

- (a) The Settlor
- (b) The Settlor’s spouse
- (c) The children and remoter descendants of the Settlor and includes adopted or illegitimate children and remoter descendants.
- (d) The children and remoter descendants of any spouse or widow(er) of the Settlor
- (e) Any persons or class of persons or object shown in the Schedule of Additional Beneficiaries in the Declaration of Trust (as set out in section 2)
- (f) The spouses and widow(er) of the Beneficiaries at (d) and (e) above
- (g) Any widow(er) of the settlor.

Part 2: Trust Provisions

1. Trust income

Subject to the Overriding Powers below

- 1.1 The Trustees may accumulate the whole or part of the income of the Trust Fund (if any) during the Accumulation Period. That income shall be added to the Trust Fund
- 1.2 The Trustees shall pay or apply the remainder of the income to or for the benefit of any Beneficiaries, as the Trustees think fit, during the Trust Period.

2. Overriding powers

The Trustees shall have the following overriding powers which they may exercise at any time or times during the Trust Period:

(1) Power to pay out capital to Beneficiaries.

- (a) The Trustees may pay or apply any Trust Property to or for the advancement or benefit of any Beneficiary.

(2) Power to vary the Trusts (power of appointment)

- (a) The Trustees may appoint that they shall hold the Trust Fund or any part or parts of the Trust Fund and its income for the benefit of any of the Beneficiaries, on such terms as the Trustees think fit.
- (b) An appointment may create any provisions and in particular it may create:
 - (i) discretionary trusts
 - (ii) dispositive or administrative powers exercisable by the Trustees or any other person or persons.
- (c) Any appointment shall be made by Deed and may be revocable during the Trust Period or irrevocable.

(3) Power to add or to exclude a Beneficiary

- (a) The Trustees may add a person or a class of persons to the Beneficiary class provided the addition is requested or agreed to in writing by the Settlor or if no Settlor is living by at least two persons who are already Beneficiaries and at least 18 years old.
- (b) The Trustees may exclude a person or class of persons from being or becoming Beneficiaries in relation to the Trust Fund or in relation to any specified part of the Trust Fund.
- (c) Any exercise of this exclusionary power shall be made by Deed and may be revocable during the Trust Period or irrevocable.
- (d) If there is any change in the parties to the trusts e.g. any trustees or beneficiaries (including class of beneficiaries) change or a letter of wishes is received, the trustees must notify Prudential of the changes, the date it became effective and within 14 days from the date any of the trustees became aware of the change.

3. Default trusts

Subject to the trusts in clause 1 and the Overriding Powers the Trust Fund and income thereof shall be held on trust for the benefit of any one or more of the Beneficiaries and in such shares (or wholly to one) and for such interests as the Trustees may during the Trust Period appoint. Subject to and in default of any appointment at the end of the trust period the remaining trust fund shall be distributed absolutely between the children, and remoter descendants of the Settlor that are still living in equal shares per stirpes subject to that if no such persons are living to any company, body or trust established for charitable purposes only at the trustees absolute discretion.

4. Appointment, Retirement and Dismissal of Trustees

- (1) The power of appointing Trustees shall be exercisable by:
 - (a) the Settlor while living and of full mental capacity.
 - (b) the Trustees (after the death of the Settlor).
- (2) Any Appointment of New Trustees or retirement of existing Trustees shall be by Deed.
- (3) Part II of the Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996 shall not apply to this Settlement.
- (4) The Settlor, while living and of full mental capacity, may dismiss by deed any Trustee provided there remains at least one Trustee who is not the Settlor or the Settlor's spouse
- (5) (a) Where the Settlor is alive and of full mental capacity, any Trustee may retire provided there remains at least one Trustee who is not the Settlor or the Settlor's spouse.
 - (b) Where the Settlor has died or is not of full mental capacity and provided there is not a single Trustee, any Trustee may retire.

Administrative Provisions

- (1) The Trustees may administer the Trust Fund for the benefit of the Beneficiaries in whatever manner they may determine and to that end shall have the widest possible powers (which they may exercise or omit to exercise from time to time at their absolute discretion) of managing and dealing with the Trust Fund and of carrying out any transaction in connection therewith in all respects as if the Trustees were the absolute beneficial owners thereof.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph 1, the Trustees shall have the power:
 - (i) to invest any money requiring investment in any property of whatever nature (including any policies of assurance or capital redemption contracts) and wherever situated whether producing income or not and upon such security (if any) as the Trustees shall in their absolute discretion think fit.

- (ii) to borrow money on such terms as to interest repayment and otherwise as they may think fit and whether upon the security of the whole or any parts of the Trust Fund or upon personal security only.
 - (iii) to delegate any power or powers in making, managing, realising or otherwise dealing with any property included in the Trust Fund to any person or persons upon such terms as to remuneration or otherwise as the Trustees may think fit and no Trustee shall be responsible for the default of any such agent if the Trustees in question employed or incurred expense in employing him in good faith.
 - (iv) to pay or transfer any capital or income to be paid to or applied for the benefit of a Beneficiary who is under a legal disability to any parent or guardian of that Beneficiary or to such person on behalf of such Beneficiary as the Trustees shall think fit and the receipt of such person shall be a complete discharge to the Trustees who shall be under no obligation to see to the proper application thereof.
- (3) The Trustees shall have the power by Deed or Deeds revocable during the Trust Period or irrevocable wholly or partly to release or restrict the future exercise of any power hereby conferred on them as if the same were not conferred on them in a fiduciary capacity and so as to bind their successors.
 - (4) The Trustees shall have power to deal with any policy of assurance or insurance as if they were the absolute owners of it and in particular may surrender, convert or exchange the same in whole or in part and exercise any power of election or option under a policy and borrow on its security and the receipt by the Trustees for any money payable under the said policy shall be a full and sufficient discharge.
 - (5) Trustees Remuneration.
A Trustee carrying on a business which consists of or includes the management of Trusts or advising Trustees may charge for work done by him or his firm in connection with the trust.
 - (6) Liability of Trustees.
A Trustee shall not be liable for a loss to the Trust Fund unless that loss was caused by his own fraud or negligence.
