

Deed of Appointment by Trustees from an existing Discretionary Trust

This draft Deed is designed for Trustees who wish to irrevocably appoint policy segments or whole policies on a bare trust for the absolute benefit of the appointed beneficiary who is a member of the class of persons able to benefit from the existing trust fund at the discretion of the trustees.

It's designed to be used with our bonds issued by and written under a discretionary Trust offered by Prudential Assurance Company Limited, Prudential International Assurance plc or Prudential International Assurance plc, UK branch and is provided strictly as a draft for the consideration of your legal advisers.

Neither The Prudential Assurance Company Limited, Prudential International Assurance plc or Prudential International Assurance plc, UK Branch can accept any responsibility for loss of any nature caused by the use, unchanged or otherwise, of this deed.

We strongly recommend that any person making use of this deed should first ensure that their own professional advisers are satisfied that it will achieve the intended objectives.

Any guidance given on completion of the deed is given on the basis that having discussed the deed with your legal advisers it is used unchanged. All notes are for guidance only and don't form part of the deed.

This draft deed is for use by non-professional trustees. It is for consideration by a natural person in the course of a purely personal or household activity.

Use of this deed may give rise to a requirement to update the UK and/or Irish trust registers. The completed deed should be kept in a safe place and not returned to any of the companies noted above.
