

Declaration of residence outside Ireland

Additional trustees form

Notes to help you

This form must be completed in full by all additional trustees. If there are more than two, please photocopy each page, complete and send with the application. Each trustee must read these definitions and then complete the declaration.

Please note that the declaration below regarding non-residence in the Republic of Ireland ("Ireland") must be completed before we can make payments.

Important: Irish "Exit" Tax may be applied to the bond (for example on payments from the bond) if this declaration is not completed.

Residence definition – company

Generally a company that is incorporated in Ireland will be regarded as resident for tax purposes in Ireland. Incorporation in Ireland does not result in a company being tax resident in Ireland if the company is regarded as resident in a territory other than Ireland and not resident in Ireland for the purposes of a tax treaty. In such a case, the tax treaty provisions override the general rule.

A company that is incorporated in a foreign jurisdiction and is centrally managed and controlled in Ireland will be resident in Ireland for tax purposes.

It should be noted that the determination of a company's residence for tax purposes can be complex in certain cases and professional tax advice should be taken if necessary.

Residence definition – individual

An individual will be regarded as being resident in Ireland for a tax year if she/he either:

- spends 183 days or more in the State in that tax year, or
- has a combined presence of 280 days in the State, taking into account the number of days spent in the State in that tax year together with the number of days spent in the State in the preceding year.

Presence in a tax year by an individual of not more than 30 days in the State will not be reckoned for the purpose of applying the two-year test. Presence in the State for a day means the personal presence of an individual at any time during the day for tax year 2009 onwards.

Ordinary residence definition – individual

The term "ordinary residence" is distinct from "residence" and relates to a person's normal pattern of life and denotes residence in a place with some degree of continuity. An individual who has been resident in the State for three consecutive tax years becomes ordinarily resident with effect from the commencement of the fourth tax year.

An individual who has been ordinarily resident in the State ceases to be ordinarily resident at the end of the third consecutive tax year in which she/he is not resident. Thus, an individual who was resident and ordinarily resident in the State in 2015 and departed from the State in that year will remain ordinarily resident up to the end of the tax year 2018.
