Section B – Information

Please read the following notes before completing this form.

- a) The minimum amount for each expected withdrawal payment, regardless of frequency, is normally £500 (or currency equivalent).
- b) Payments may be made by, direct credit or telegraphic transfer to a nominated bank account. Any method of transfer may attract a charge. For more information please read your Statement of Charges.
- c) In each policy year, you can currently withdraw up to 5% of an investment into the bond, without paying any immediate income tax. You can do this for 20 years (for additional investments this is from the policy year of investment) or until you've withdrawn an amount equal to the amount you originally invested. Please note that for Prudential International Investment Portfolio any Ad-hoc, Ongoing Adviser Charges or Ongoing Investment Adviser charges that are met from the bond will also count against this 5% tax-deferred allowance. If you're not sure as to how your withdrawal will be taxed please speak to your financial adviser before submitting this request.
- d) Any withdrawal is paid in the Cash-in Benefit Currency.
- e) If you have one or more Discretionary Asset Managers, please ensure you select where you would like your withdrawal to be funded from.
- f) If regular withdrawals are being taken from a bond, we will suspend these payments on change of ownership. We will need a written request from the new owner for them to resume or for a new arrangement to be set up. For Prudential International Investment Portfolio we will also suspend any adviser charges or investment adviser charges on change of ownership.
- g) Regular withdrawals (including Ongoing Adviser Charges) will not be allowed if it would take the bond value below the greater of, £7500 or 15% of bond investments in the previous 5 years.
