If the value of all the other funds is insufficient to meet the full amount of the Ongoing Adviser Charge we will deduct the charges from the funds held in the bond, and if there is insufficient value in your holding in that fund, then charges will be taken from any PruFund Protected Fund holding.

If any Ongoing Adviser Charges are taken from a PruFund Protected Fund, the Guaranteed Minimum Fund will be reduced.

- market research, data analytics including profiling, staff training and provision of on-line services
- for management information purposes including risk assessments, performance and management reporting.

Where we rely on legitimate interests, we will always balance this against your rights and freedoms. Where your rights override our legitimate interests we will cease to process personal data.

In addition, we M&G plc and our Marketing Partners, may use the personal information you provide to us, together with other information, to send you direct marketing offers by electronic or non-electronic means including by post, where you have consented for us to do so. Please see Part G for further details.

Who we share your personal information with and why

We are the data controller in respect of the personal information we collect about you and in this capacity we will share your personal information within M&G plc, with our Business Partners and with our Marketing Partners, for any of the purposes set out in Part A. If you have a joint policy or investment, the other person may receive your personal information too. If appropriate, we may also pass on your personal information to financial crime prevention agencies, any legal, regulatory or government bodies.

As we, M&G plc, and some of our Business Partners are global companies, we might need to send your personal information to countries that have different data protection laws to the European Economic Area. These transfers will only be to countries in respect of which the European Commission has issued a data protection 'adequacy' decision, or to other countries, such as India or the United States of America, but only where appropriate safeguards have been put in place first. In more limited circumstances, we may also need to rely on a derogation under applicable privacy laws.

If you want to know more about the above safeguards – like our use of the European Commission's Standard Contractual Clauses which govern the transfer of information outside of the European Economic Area – further information is available on request.

We keep your personal information for a set amount of time

We'll keep your personal information while you're one of our policyholders (including joint policyholders), and for seven years from cessation, or longer if we need to by law. It'll always be in line with our data retention policy.

Part B – Reference checks

For certain products, we may use approved credit reference agencies, tracing companies, financial crime prevention agencies, or publicly available information, to help us to check your identity, as well as to prevent fraud and money laundering; this may include checks on your current or previous addresses. Results of these may be recorded for future reference.

These checks may also be carried out for a joint policy holder or person(s) that you provide personal information on. Should we ever lose contact with you, we may use these agencies to verify your address to help us get back in touch.

Any transfer of your personal information will always be done securely.

Part C – We may use your personal information to make automated decisions or profile you

We, M&G plc, our Business Partners, and our Marketing Partners may use your personal information to make automated decisions affecting you or to conduct other profiling (for example, marketing profiling).

To the extent that we conduct such automated decision making activity, we'll provide you with further information at the appropriate time.

Part D – Use of your sensitive personal information

For certain products or services, we'll need to process your sensitive personal information, such as information relating to health, genetics, biometric identifiers and sexual orientation. To the extent that we need your explicit consent to process this kind of personal information in the manner described in Parts A, B, and C, we will only process such data as provided by your consent.

Part E – You're in control

When it comes to how we use your personal information, you've got the right to:

- request a copy of your personal information for free (we may charge you for this if the request is manifestly unfounded or excessive). We shall respond as soon as reasonably possible and within one month of the date of receiving your request;
- in certain circumstances request that we move your personal information to another organisation if you want us to;
- request that we correct anything that's wrong, or complete any incomplete personal information;
- ask us to delete your personal information if it is no longer needed for the purposes set out in Part A or if there is no other legal basis for the processing;
- limit how we use your personal information or withdraw your consents you have given for the processing of your personal information (including consents to automated decision making);
- complain to a data protection authority or another independent regulator about how we're using it;
- object to us using your personal information for direct marketing (including related profiling) or other processing based on legitimate interests.

If you want to do any of these things, or would like an explanation as regards these rights, we've explained how you can get in touch in the 'Contact Us' section.

If you do need to speak to us, it'll be useful to have to hand that the data controller of your personal information is PIA. PIA has also appointed a Data Protection Officer who can be reached at the details shown in the 'Contact Us' section of this document.

We may monitor or record calls or any other communication we have with you. This will be for training, for security, or to help us check for quality.

Part F – Acting on someone else's behalf?

If you give us personal information about another person (or persons), we'll take that to mean they have appointed and authorised you to act on their behalf. This includes providing consent to:

- our processing of their personal information and sensitive personal information (as we've explained in Parts A, B, C, and D above);
- you getting any data privacy notices on their behalf.

If for any reason you are concerned as to whether you are permitted to provide us with the other person's information, please contact us on the phone number provided in the 'Contact Us' section before sending us anything.

Part G – Direct marketing

From time to time, we, M&G plc, our Business Partners and our Marketing Partners may like to contact you by electronic or non-electronic means with details about products, services and any special offers. Please note that any consent you give will not apply to M&G Investments Group and Prudential UK as they operate their own customer databases.

If you previously provided us with your marketing preferences for email, phone and/or text, we'll ensure that these preferences are adhered to.

We'll continue to send you communications by post unless you have asked us not to. If you've opted out already from post and/or email, phone or text, then we will not send you marketing communications.

If you haven't previously provided us with your preferences, or wish to change your mind on your current preferences, it's easy to let us know. Just contact us at the details noted in the 'Contact Us' section.

3. Adviser Charges Declaration

I authorise Prudential International to act upon my instructions regarding the facilitation of Adviser Charges (the “Adviser Charge Instruction”) whether specified here now or elsewhere at any time in future. I also understand that Prudential International shall not be required to carry out such instructions (including any permitted by my adviser firm) where they conflict with any applicable law or regulation and/or where they are inconsistent with Prudential International’s Adviser Charge administration capability.

I understand that where there is a difference between the Adviser Charge Instruction and the Adviser Charges agreed with my adviser firm, Prudential International will only facilitate payment in accordance with my Adviser Charge Instruction.

I confirm that the Adviser Charge specified in my Adviser Charge Instruction is inclusive of any VAT at the prevailing rate from time to time.

I understand that if the level of VAT applicable within the Adviser Charge changes (including where previously VAT free Adviser Charges become subject to VAT) Prudential International will only alter my Adviser Charge following a new Adviser Charge Instruction or instruction from my adviser firm which sets out the new level of charges to be deducted.

I understand that, with the exception of changes in the level of VAT, the Adviser Charge may not be increased without my explicit authority.

I agree that the Adviser Charge may be reduced or stopped by Prudential International or my adviser firm without my explicit authority.

I agree that where my adviser firm arranges for the services I have agreed with them to be provided by another adviser firm, I authorise Prudential International to amend my Adviser Charge Instructions to pay the Adviser Charges at the existing agreed level to the new adviser firm, except where they conflict with any applicable law, regulation and/or HMRC practice and/or where they are inconsistent with Prudential’s Adviser Charge administration capability.

I confirm that I have discussed with my Financial Adviser the tax implications of having my Adviser Charge deducted from the contract and acknowledge that deduction of the Adviser Charge may trigger a tax liability. (Whether tax is triggered as a result of the Adviser Charge will depend on the type of Prudential International contract and how you have agreed with your adviser to structure payment of the Adviser Charge. Your adviser (or another independent tax adviser) should provide you with this advice).

4. Declaration of residence outside Ireland

Each Applicant must read the residency definitions below and then complete this declaration.

Definition of Residence

Residence definition – company

Generally a company that is incorporated in Ireland will be regarded as resident for tax purposes in Ireland. Incorporation in Ireland does not result in a company being tax resident in Ireland if the company is regarded as resident in a territory other than Ireland and not resident in Ireland for the purposes of a tax treaty. In such a case, the tax treaty provisions override the general rule.

A company that is incorporated in a foreign jurisdiction and is centrally managed and controlled in Ireland will be resident in Ireland for tax purposes.

It should be noted that the determination of a company’s residence for tax purposes can be complex in certain cases and professional tax advice should be taken if necessary.

Residence definition – individual

An individual will be regarded as being resident in Ireland for a tax year if s/he either:

- spends 183 days or more in the State in that tax year, or
- has a combined presence of 280 days in the State, taking into account the number of days spent in the State in that tax year together with the number of days spent in the State in the preceding year.

Presence in a tax year by an individual of not more than 30 days in the State will not be reckoned for the purpose of applying the two-year test. Presence in the State for a day means the personal presence of an individual at any time during that day for tax year 2009 onwards.

Ordinary residence definition – individual

The term “ordinary residence” as distinct from “residence” relates to a person’s normal pattern of life and denotes residence in a place with some degree of continuity. An individual who has been resident in the State for three consecutive tax years becomes ordinarily resident with effect from the commencement of the fourth tax year.

An individual who has been ordinarily resident in the State ceases to be ordinarily resident at the end of the third consecutive tax year in which s/he is not resident. Thus, an individual who is resident and ordinarily resident in the State in 2020 and departs from the State in that year will remain ordinarily resident up to the end of the tax year 2023.

Please note that the declaration below regarding non-residence in Ireland must be completed before we can make payments. Important Irish “Exit” Tax may be applied to the bond (for example on payments from the bond) if this declaration is not completed. Policyholders and trustees resident outside Ireland are required by the Irish Revenue Commissioners to make the following declaration, which is in a format authorised by them, in order to receive payments without deduction of Irish tax.

I/We* declare that (*Delete as appropriate)

- I/We* have read the explanation of the terms detailed in the “residence definitions” above.
- I am/We are/The Company is* the policyholder in respect of which this declaration is being made.
- I am/We are/The Company is* not resident or ordinarily resident in Ireland.

If you are making this declaration whilst in the process of setting up your policy, setting up a series of regular withdrawals or making a first partial encashment:

- I/We/The Company* hereby undertake(s) to inform Prudential International in writing of any change in my/our/the Company’s* country of residence during the life of the policy, and will provide the relevant documentation necessary to evidence the change.
