Section G – Declaration

Please read the points below carefully and provide the Scheme's HM Revenue & Customs reference number before signing the declaration.

- We declare that to the best of our knowledge and belief the information on this form is true and complete.
 - We authorise Prudential to act upon our instructions regarding the facilitation of Adviser Charges (the "Adviser Charge Instruction") whether specified here now or elsewhere at any time in future. We also understand that Prudential shall not be required to carry out such instructions (including any permitted by our adviser firm) where they conflict with any applicable law or regulation and/or where they are inconsistent with Prudential's Adviser Charge administration capability.
 - We understand that where there is a difference between the Adviser Charge Instruction and the Adviser Charges agreed with our adviser firm, Prudential will only facilitate payment in accordance with our Adviser Charge Instruction.
 - We confirm that the Adviser Charge specified in our Adviser Charge Instruction is inclusive of any VAT at the prevailing rate from time to time.
 - We understand that if the level of VAT applicable within the Adviser Charge changes (including where previously VAT free Adviser Charges become subject to VAT) Prudential will only alter our Adviser Charge following a new Adviser Charge Instruction or instruction from our adviser firm which sets out the new level of charges to be deducted.
 - We understand that, with the exception of changes in the level of VAT, the Adviser Charge may not be increased without our explicit authority.
 - We agree that the Adviser Charge may be reduced or stopped by Prudential or our adviser firm without our explicit authority.
 - We agree that where our adviser firm arranges for the services we have agreed with them to be provided by another adviser firm, we authorise Prudential to amend our Adviser Charge Instructions to pay the Adviser Charges at the existing agreed level to the new adviser firm, except where they conflict with any applicable law, regulation and/or HMRC practice and/or where they are inconsistent with Prudential's Adviser Charge administration capability.
 - We confirm that we have discussed with our financial adviser the tax implications of having our Adviser Charge deducted from the Plan.
 - We understand that any Adviser Charge not paid in line with HMRC rules will result in unauthorised payments and tax charges for which we will be liable.
- We confirm that:
- (i) our Adviser Charges arise from genuinely commercial remuneration arrangements between ourselves and our adviser which are appropriate to the advice and service our adviser provides us in relation to our registered pension scheme(s);
 - (ii) any Set-up Adviser Charges are solely in respect of the initial advice to set up this pension plan(s)/ these pension plan(s);
 - (iii) where we have selected Ongoing Adviser Charges we are receiving ongoing pensions advice and/or a service from our adviser in relation to our registered pension scheme(s).
- We understand that Ongoing Adviser Charges must stop if we cease to receive ongoing pension scheme advice and/or service(s) from our adviser in relation to our registered pension scheme(s) and that we must inform Prudential prior to the occurrence of such event.
 - If any Adviser Charges are overpaid to our adviser we understand that we must ensure that the overpayment is returned to our pension scheme. In the event that an overpayment is not returned to our pension scheme we understand that we will be liable for any tax consequences that may arise from the breach of any UK tax legislation.
 - We understand that Adviser Charges deducted from our pension plan(s) will have an impact on the benefits payable from such plan(s).
 - We understand a member can only be named at the start of a plan and cannot be removed. Where we have named an individual in Section C, they are an existing member of our scheme.
 - The Scheme named in this form has been (or is in the process of being) approved by HM Revenue & Customs as a registered scheme under Chapter 2 of Part 4 of Finance Act 2004;
 - If the Scheme should fail to gain, or lose, HM Revenue & Customs approval we will immediately notify Prudential; and
 - The investment powers included in the documents governing the Scheme do not preclude investment in a Prudential Trustee Investment Plan

How we use your personal information

We, Prudential UK (part of M&G plc), take the privacy and protection of your personal information seriously.

So we've set out below information about our processing of your personal information, what rights you have, and how you can get in touch if you want to know more.

When we say personal information, we mean information about you, such as your name, date of birth and contact details. We collect personal information from you that is necessary for us to either provide you with the product or service you've requested or to comply with statutory or contractual requirements. Unfortunately if you don't provide all of the information we require this may mean we are unable to provide our products and services to you.

Part A – How we use your personal information and why

We, M&G plc and our Business Partners, will use the personal information you provide to us, together with other information, for the following purposes:

- the administration of our products and services, including to enable us to perform our obligations to you and to provide any relevant services as discussed with you prior to any purchase of a product or service
- complying with any regulatory or other legal requirements
- carrying out checks using agencies such as credit reference agencies, tracing companies, or publicly available information (See Part B for more)
- the provision of customer services – like to reply to a question, or tell you that something's changing
- automated decision-making or profiling (see Part C for more)
- keeping your information on record and carrying out other internal business administration

In addition, we, M&G plc, and our Marketing Partners, will use the personal information you provide to us, together with other information, to send you direct marketing offers by electronic and non-electronic means including by post, as well as sending you introductions to products and services from carefully selected third parties also by post. Please see Part G for further details.

Some of the purposes above are necessary to allow us to perform our contractual obligations to you and to enable us to comply with applicable laws and regulation. We may also rely on legitimate interests or other legal bases in using and sharing your personal information for the purposes described above to improve our products and services. This allows us to explore ways to develop our business and to gain insights into how our products and services are used. To the extent that we need your consent to use your personal information for the purposes described above, you explicitly provide your consent by signing and returning this form, or as set out in Part G as appropriate.

Who we share your personal information with and why

We may share your personal information within M&G plc and with our Business Partners, for any of the purposes set out in Part A. If you have a joint policy or investment, the other person may receive your personal information too. If appropriate, we may also pass on your personal information to financial crime prevention agencies, any legal, regulatory or government bodies.

As we, M&G plc, and some of our Business Partners are global companies, we might need to send your personal information to countries that have different data protection laws to the UK or the European Economic Area. These transfers will only be to countries in respect of which the European Commission and, where applicable, the UK Government has issued a data protection 'adequacy' decision, or to other countries, such as India or the United States of America, but only where appropriate safeguards have been put in place first. In more limited circumstances, we may also need to rely on a derogation under applicable privacy laws.

If you want to know more about these safeguards – like our use of the European Commission's or UK's Model Clauses which govern the transfer of information outside of the European Economic Area and UK respectively – further information is available on request.

We keep your personal information for a set amount of time

Your personal information will be stored either for as long as you (or your joint policyholder) are our customer, or longer if required by law or as is otherwise necessary. It'll always be in line with our data retention policy.

Part B – Reference checks

For certain products, we may use approved credit reference agencies, tracing companies, financial crime prevention agencies, or publicly available information, to help us to check your identity, as well as to prevent fraud and money laundering; this may include checks on your current or previous addresses. Results of these may be recorded for future reference.

These checks may also be carried out for a joint policy holder or person(s) that you provide personal information on. Should we ever lose contact with you, we may use these agencies to verify your address to help us get back in touch.

Any transfer of your personal information will always be done securely.

Part C – We may use your personal information to make automated decisions or profile you

We, M&G plc, our Business Partners, and our Marketing Partners may use your personal information to make automated decisions affecting you or to conduct other profiling (for example, marketing profiling).

To the extent that we conduct such automated decision making activity, we'll provide you with further information at the appropriate time.

Part D – Use of your sensitive personal information

For certain products or services, we'll need to process your sensitive personal information, such as information relating to health, genetics, biometric identifiers and sexual orientation. To the extent that we need your explicit consent to process this kind of personal information in the manner described in Parts A, B, and C, you explicitly provide your consent by signing and returning this form.

Part E – You're in control

When it comes to how we use your personal information, you've got the right to:

- request a copy of your personal information for free (we may charge you for this if the request is manifestly unfounded or excessive)
- in certain circumstances request that we move your personal information to another organisation if you want us to
- request that we correct anything that's wrong, or complete any incomplete personal information
- ask us to delete your personal information if it is no longer needed for the purposes set out in Part A or if there is no other legal basis for the processing
- limit how we use your personal information or withdraw your consents (including automated decision making) you have given for the processing of your personal information
- object to us using your personal information for direct marketing (including related profiling) or other processing based on legitimate interests
- complain to a data protection authority or another independent regulator about how we're using it.

If you want to do any of these things, or would like an explanation as regards these rights, we've explained how you can get in touch in the Contact Us section.

If you do need to speak to us, it'll be useful to have to hand that the data controller of your personal information is Prudential UK. Prudential UK have also appointed a Data Protection Officer who can be reached at the address shown in the Contact Us section of this document.

We may monitor or record calls or any other communication we have with you. This might be for training, for security, or to help us check for quality.

Part F – Acting on someone else's behalf?

If you give us personal information about another person (or persons), we'll take that to mean they have appointed and authorised you to act on their behalf. This includes providing consent to:

- our processing of their personal information and sensitive personal information (as we've explained in Parts A, B, C, and D above)
- you getting any information protection notices on their behalf.

If for any reason you are concerned as to whether you are permitted to provide us with the other person's information, please contact us on the phone number below before sending us anything.

Part G – Direct marketing

We and M&G plc will still send you information by post about the Prudential UK and M&G plc's products and services and carefully selected third parties.

Additionally, from time to time, Prudential UK and M&G plc would like to contact you by electronic means with details about products, services and any special offers.
