Important information

1. This form must be completed by all legal owner(s) of the Bond and sent to Prudential International Assurance plc, Stirling FK9 4UE. If the current owner is not the original owner please submit deeds or other documents that prove ownership (e.g. Deed of Assignment). If there are more than two owners please photocopy page three.

2. Tax warning: Please read before completing this form

You may be liable to income tax, in the form of a chargeable event gain, on the withdrawal from this Bond. If you are not sure how your withdrawal will be taxed you should speak to your financial adviser before you submit this request.

If you cash in individual policies, this may produce an income tax liability on the gain (profit), in excess of the basic rate and/or may affect any entitlement to personal allowances and certain tax credits.

If you take a one-off withdrawal by partially cashing in policies in the Bond, you may have to pay income tax. In each policy year you can partially cash in policies to take a sum up to 5% of the amount you have invested in your Bond, without having an immediate income tax bill.

If you don't use all of this 5% allowance in any policy year, you can carry forward the unused portion. The allowance comes to an end once you have withdrawn 100% of the amount you invested. If you partially cash in more than the allowance in any policy year, the excess is treated as creating a gain. A gain may create an income tax liability in excess of the basic rate and/or may affect any entitlement to personal allowances and certain tax credits.

The 5% allowance also applies to any additional investment you make. It is very important to note that any Ongoing Adviser Charges, Ad hoc Adviser Charges or regular withdrawals you ask us to pay from your Bond also count against the 5% allowance. If you are not sure how your withdrawal will be taxed you should speak to your financial adviser before you submit this request. Any tax liability may vary depending on whether the withdrawal is made by cashing in full policies or from across all policies (any Adviser Charge instruction currently in place may be reduced proportionately).

Any partial cash in transactions, regular withdrawals, Ongoing Adviser Charges and Ad hoc Adviser Charges taken up to the 5% allowance will be taken into account for a possible income tax liability when the Bond comes to an end by being cashed in or when the death benefit becomes payable.

You might need to pay tax depending on your circumstances and the options you choose. Tax rules can also change in the future. More information is available in our "Guide to tax on your investment" leaflet, which you can request by calling 0800 000 000 or go to pru.co.uk, or speak to your financial adviser.

3. The standard timescale for processing claims is five working days following receipt of all requirements. Please note that Assets need to be traded to Cash on your Platform to cover the required value and any outstanding charges before the payment can be paid.
