

MILES TYM APPOINTED FUND MANAGER OF TWO M&G BOND FUNDS

London, 2 November 2020 – M&G today announces that Miles Tym has been appointed as fund manager of the £593 million M&G Gilt & Fixed Interest Income Fund and the £207 million M&G Index-Linked Bond Fund<sup>1</sup>, with immediate effect.

Miles Tym, supported by deputy Robert Burrows, specialises in actively managed fixed and index-linked Government bond mandates for M&G's institutional clients, such as UK DB pension schemes. Together they currently manage over £6 billion<sup>2</sup> of these mandates which are aligned to the aims and objectives of the two funds the team is taking on the management responsibilities for. There will be no change to either funds' investment objective and policy.

Jim Leaviss, CIO Public Fixed Income, M&G, said: "M&G's history and experience in public debt investment dates back to the 1970s when we first launched bond funds for our institutional clients, many of whom are UK DB pension schemes. Through the active management of gilt portfolios with a tried and tested process, they have delivered meaningful outperformance consistently over many years. This appointment now provides our wholesale clients with access to this expert team with deep knowledge of this sector."
